

Wilderness Lectures 2020-21 Season update

With huge regret we have decided not to run a series this winter. This is our first break in 33 years, and we are deeply disappointed, but we can't guarantee what's going to happen with any local lockdowns, occupancy policies for our venues, concerns of our speakers etc.

We're sure you will understand and we very much hope that we'll be able to arrange lectures for 2021-22 on our normal pattern and we'll see you again, then.

If you have tickets for the two lectures we were forced to cancel earlier this year, Helen Sharman and Peter Habeler, we have rescheduled these events to March 2021 in the hope that by then the situation will be easier.

The dates are:

Helen Sharman, Monday 8th March 2021

Peter Habeler, Thursday 25th March 2021

Both lectures will take place in the Anson Rooms, Bristol SU, Richmond Building, 105 Queens Road, Bristol. BS8 1LN.

We very much hope that these events will happen although we are, of course, entirely dependent on the situation regarding CV-19. We, and the Union, will abide by whatever Government guidelines are in place at the time.

Refunds

If you hold tickets for either of these events and know that you will be unable to make the date, or you don't want to run the risk of the event being cancelled, we will of course refund you on return of the tickets.

We will refund at the advertised advance rate, less an administrative charge of £1.20 (to cover 50p postage and the 70p bank charge for processing a cheque) or £0.70p if we are provided with a stamped addressed envelope when you return the tickets.

Alternatively, we can refund by bank transfer on receipt of returned tickets. Please provide your account number, sort code and your account name exactly as it appears on your cheque book/statements. Our bank now checks that these bits of information match and even small variations in account name will lead to a rejection. Please also provide an email address or telephone number so that we can contact you if there's a problem

Requests for refunds should be directed to Wilderness Lectures, 5 Cliftonwood Crescent, BS8 4TU.

Best wishes and stay well.

Dick, Steve, Steve and John